

A Using email

Think about the way you use email.

- How often do you check your email? [look to see if you have any messages]
- How many emails do you send a week? Are they all essential? [important /necessary]
- How many emails do you get every week? Do you read them immediately? [without waiting]
- How quickly do you reply to [answer] the emails you receive?
- Do you delete emails regularly? [remove them from your computer often]
- Do you get much spam? [emails that you do not want, usually adverts; also called junk mail]
- Have you got anti-virus software? [a program that stops a virus entering your computer]
- How often do you send or receive attachments?

Language help

In English an email address may be written as pd@freeserve.co.uk, but we say it like this: pd at freeserve dot co dot uk.

B Getting started on the Internet

To go on the Internet, you need an ISP (Internet service provider) that will connect [join or link] your computer to the Internet and give you access [the ability to use] email and other services. When you go online [use the Internet], you can then send and receive emails, or you can browse the Internet [look at websites]; you do this using a browser such as Internet Explorer or Firefox. Many websites also have links: if you click on a link, it will take you to a different website, or move you from one part of the website to another.

C Using the Internet

Many people now have internet access and internet use is changing all the time. These are common uses.

- Students search the Internet [look for information on the Internet; also do an Internet search] to help with their studies.
- People download [copy onto their computer; opp upload] information, pictures, music, video clips [small parts of a video recording], etc.
- People buy books, clothes and food online, book their holidays online, take out insurance online, etc. People go to a website, select the item [product, e.g. a book] they want and click add to basket/bag. When they have finished shopping they go to checkout and pay for their items, usually with a credit card.
- Some people have a personal website to provide news about a particular subject, or just write about events in their life. These are called blogs, and people who write them are bloggers.
- Some people just like to spend hours surfing the web. [looking at different websites]
- Some people spend a lot of time on social networking sites [places on the Internet where you can have a discussion with other people, e.g. Facebook, Twitter, etc.]. On these sites people post comments [leave messages] to their friends.
- Some people do a lot of instant messaging. [send and receive messages in real time]
